DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

28

1 Plaintiffs Associated Grocers of New England, Inc., North Central Distributors, LLC,
2 Cash-Wa Distributing Co. of Kearney, Inc., and URM Stores, Inc. (“Plaintiffs”), by and through
3 undersigned counsel, complain as follows:

4 NATURE OF THE CASE

5 1. This action arises from a conspiracy to raise, fix, stabilize, or maintain prices,
6 allocate customers, and restrict capacity in the market for shelf-stable packaged seafood,
7 including tuna, clam, crab, mackerel, oyster, salmon, sardines, and shrimp (“Packaged Seafood”)
8 sold in the United States, from at least as early as January 1, 2000, through the present (the 9 “Relevant Period”), by Defendants Tri-Union Seafoods, LLC, d/b/a Chicken of the Sea, King
10 Oscar, Inc., Bumble Bee Foods, LLC f/k/a Bumble Bee Seafoods, LLC, and StarKist Co.
11 (collectively, “Defendants”).

12 2. Plaintiffs bring this action to (i) recover treble damages, attorneys’ fees, litigation
13 expenses, and court costs, and (ii) secure injunctive relief for violations of Section 1 of the 14 Sherman Act of 1890 (“Sherman Act”), 15 U.S.C. § 1, pursuant to Sections 4 and 16 of the 15 Clayton Act of 1914 (“Clayton Act”), 15 U.S.C. §§ 15 and 26.

16 3. As alleged more fully below, by early 2000, growth in the Packaged Seafood
17 industry had slowed, and the prospects for growth were dim. Beginning at least as early as 18 January 2000, in an effort to combat the prospect of diminishing profits, Defendants and their co-
19 conspirators conspired to raise, fix, stabilize, or maintain prices, allocate customers, and restrict 20 capacity in the market for Packaged Seafood sold in the United States. As a direct and proximate
21 result of Defendants’ cartel activities, Plaintiffs were overcharged by Defendants for Packaged 22 Seafood.

23 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

24 4. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action pursuant to 25 Section 4(a) and 16 of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 15(a) and 26, and 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 26 1337.

27 5. Defendants and their co-conspirators engaged in conduct both inside and outside
28 the United States that caused direct, substantial, and reasonably foreseeable and intended

1 anticompetitive effects upon interstate commerce within the United States, and upon import trade
2 and commerce with the United States.

3 6. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to Sections 4(a) and 12 of the Clayton Act,
4 15 U.S.C. §§ 15(a) and 22, and 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391 (b), (c), and (d), because a substantial part of 5 the events giving rise to Plaintiffs' claims occurred in this district, a substantial portion of the 6 affected interstate trade and commerce discussed below has been carried out in this district, and 7 one or more Defendants reside, are found, have agents, are licensed to do business, are doing
8 business, or transact business in this district.

9 7. This Court has in personal jurisdiction over each Defendant because, inter alia,
10 each Defendant: (a) transacted business in the United States, including in this district; (b) directly 11 or indirectly sold or marketed substantial quantities of Packaged Seafood throughout the United 12 States, including in this district; (c) had substantial aggregate contacts with the United States as a 13 whole, including in this district; or (d) was engaged in an illegal price-fixing conspiracy that was 14 directed at, and had a direct, substantial, reasonably foreseeable, and intended effect of causing 15 injury to, the business or property of persons and entities residing in, located in, or doing business
16 throughout the United States, including in this district.

17 PARTIES

18 A. Plaintiffs

19 7. Plaintiff Associated Grocers of New England, Inc. is a New Hampshire 20 corporation with its principal place of business in Pembroke, New Hampshire. During the 21 Relevant Period, Plaintiff purchased Packaged Seafood directly from one or more Defendants,
22 and has been injured in its business or property by reason of the antitrust violations alleged in this 23 complaint.

24 8. Plaintiff North Central Distributors, LLC is a Texas corporation with its principal
25 place of business in Dallas, Texas. During the Relevant Period, Plaintiff purchased Packaged
26 Seafood directly from one or more Defendants, and has been injured in its business or property by 27 reason of the antitrust violations alleged in this complaint.

28

1 9. Plaintiff Cash-Wa Distributing Co. of Kearney, Inc. is a Nebraska corporation with 2 its principal place of business in Kearney, Nebraska. During the Relevant Period, Plaintiff
3 purchased Packaged Seafood directly from one or more Defendants, and has been injured in its 4 business or property by reason of the antitrust violations alleged in this complaint.

5 10. Plaintiff URM Stores, Inc. is a Washington corporation with its principal place of 6 business in Spokane, Washington. During the Relevant Period, Plaintiff purchased Packaged
7 Seafood directly from one or more Defendants, and has been injured in its business or property by
8 reason of the antitrust violations alleged in this complaint.

9 B. Defendants

10 11. Defendant Tri-Union Seafoods, LLC, d/b/a Chicken of the Sea International 11 (“COTS”) is a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at 4510 Executive Drive,
12 # 3, San Diego, CA 92121.

13 12. Defendant King Oscar, Inc. (“KOI”) is a Delaware corporation with its principal 14 place of business at 3838 Camino Del Rio North, Suite 115, San Diego, CA 92108.

15 13. Defendants COTS and KOI (together, “Tri-Union”) are wholly-owned subsidiaries
16 of Thai Union Frozen Products Public Company, Ltd. (“Thai Union”), a publicly held company
17 headquartered in Thailand.

18 14. Defendant Bumble Bee Foods, LLC, f/k/a Bumble Bee Seafoods, LLC (“Bumble
19 Bee”) is a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at 9655 Granite Ridge Drive,
20 Suite 100, San Diego, CA 92123. Bumble Bee is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Lion Capital, a 21 private investment firm headquartered in Great Britain.

22 15. Defendant StarKist Co. (“StarKist”) is a Delaware corporation with its principal
23 place of business at 225 North Shore Drive, Suite 400, Pittsburgh, PA 15212. StarKist is a 24 wholly-owned subsidiary of Dongwon Enterprises Co., which is headquartered in Korea.

25 16. Defendants and their co-conspirators directly and through their affiliates sold
26 Packaged Seafood in the United States and in this district at artificially inflated prices during the 27 Relevant Period. Defendants are direct competitors in the United States Packaged Seafood 28 market.

AGENTS AND CO-CONSPIRATORS

2 17. Each Defendant acted as the principal of, or agent for, all other Defendants with 3 respect to the acts, violations, and common course of conduct described in this complaint.

4 18. Various other persons, firms, companies, and corporations not named as 5 Defendants have knowingly and willingly conspired with Defendants, and performed acts and 6 made statements in furtherance of the conspiracy and in furtherance of the anticompetitive
7 conduct.

8 19. The acts alleged to have been done by any Defendant or co-conspirator were 9 authorized, ordered, or done by its directors, officers, managers, agents, employees, or 10 representatives while actively engaged in the management, direction, or control of such 11 Defendant's or co-conspirator's affairs.

INTERSTATE TRADE AND COMMERCE

13 20. Defendants Tri-Union, Bumble Bee, and StarKist are the leading manufacturers of 14 Packaged Seafood sold in the United States.

15 21. The referenced Packaged Seafood products are produced by Defendants or their 16 affiliates in either the United States or overseas.

17 22. During the Relevant Period, Tri-Union, Bumble Bee, and StarKist, directly or 18 through one or more of their affiliates, sold Packaged Seafood throughout the United States in a 19 continuous and uninterrupted flow of interstate commerce, including through and into this judicial 20 district.

21 23. The activities of Defendants and their co-conspirators were within the flow of, and 22 intended to, and did, have a substantial effect on interstate commerce in the United States.

23 24. Defendants' and their co-conspirators' conduct, including the marketing and sale
24 of Packaged Seafood, took place within, and has had, and was intended to have, a direct, 25 substantial, and reasonably foreseeable anticompetitive effect upon interstate commerce within 26 the United States and upon import commerce with foreign nations.

27
28

1 25. The restraints alleged in this complaint have directly and substantially affected
2 interstate commerce in that Defendants have deprived Plaintiffs of the benefits of free and open
3 competition in the purchase of Packaged Seafood within the United States.

4 26. Defendants' agreement to inflate, fix, raise, maintain, or artificially stabilize prices
5 of Packaged Seafood, and their actual inflating, fixing, raising, maintaining, or artificially
6 stabilizing Packaged Seafood prices, were intended to have, and had, a direct, substantial, and 7 reasonably foreseeable effect on United States commerce and on import trade and commerce with 8 the United States.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

A. Background

10 27. Packaged Seafood is composed of raw seafood that is processed to preserve and 11 enhance flavor, and ensure product safety. Because it is typically caught far offshore, raw seafood 12 is usually delivered to canneries frozen or refrigerated.

14 28. Upon delivery to a processing plant, an initial quality control inspection is 15 performed to ensure the seafood was stored and transported at the proper temperature and is in 16 acceptable condition. The seafood is maintained at temperatures ranging from 0°Celsius to -18°C
17 until processing. Seafood passing the initial quality control inspection is prepared for packaging.

18 29. Accepted seafood is initially transferred to large ovens for "pre-cooking." After 19 further cleaning, the seafood is fed into filling machines where product packages (either cans, 20 pouches, or cups) are filled with pre-set amounts. Filled packages are moved to sealing machines 21 where they are closed and sealed.

22 30. Each package is affixed with a permanent production code identifying plant,
23 product, date packed, batch, and other information. Filled and sealed packages are then cooked 24 under pressure to make the products commercially sterile and give them a long shelf life.

25 31. All three Defendants sell Packaged Seafood in the United States. StarKist, Bumble
26 Bee and Tri-Union all sell packaged tuna, clams, salmon, and sardines. Bumble Bee and Tri-27 Union also sell packaged crabs, mackerel, oysters, and shrimp.

28

1 32. The United States Packaged Seafood industry generates annual sales of 2 approximately $2.6 billion. Tuna is the largest category within Packaged Seafood, generating 3 estimated annual sales of approximately $1.7 billion.

4 33. Defendants dominated the United States market for Packaged Seafood throughout 5 the Relevant Period. In 2001, Defendants had a combined market share of 85%, which is 6 approximately the same percentage they have today: StarKist 36-40%; Bumble Bee 25%; and Tri-
 7 Union 20%.

8 34. After decades of growth, demand for Packaged Seafood has been declining since 9 2000. From about 1950 until 2000, packaged tuna was the most popular seafood in the United 10 States. In 1990, the International Trade Commission estimated that Americans consumed between 11 one-half and two-thirds of the global supply of packaged tuna.

12 35. Since the 1990s, health and sustainability concerns, which range from fears of 13 mercury poisoning to fury over dolphin bycatch, have taken their toll. So, too, has a national shift 14 away from packaged seafood.

15 36. As a result, domestic consumption of Packaged Seafood has experienced a steady
 16 decline since 2000 (see Figure 1 below). Yet, the prices of Packaged Seafood increased steadily 17 from 2000 to 2015.

18 Figure 1

1 37. In particular, packaged tuna saw a steady decline in U.S. per capita consumption
 2 from 3.5 to 2.4 pounds per person per annum between 2000 and 2014 (see Figure 2 below).

15 38. However, since 2005, the price of packaged tuna has skyrocketed (see Figure 3 16 below).

1 39. In a competitive environment, a decline in demand for a product will normally
2 lead to a decline in the price of that product. However, because Defendants controlled the market
3 and agreed with each other to restrict capacity, allocate customers, and fix the prices of Packaged
4 Seafood, the prices of Packaged Seafood were intentionally and collaboratively set at artificially
5 high levels throughout the Relevant Period.

6 40. These price increases since the beginning of 2000 were a direct result of 7 Defendants' conspiracy to restrict capacity, allocate customers, and fix the prices of Packaged
8 Seafood in the United States. As a result, Plaintiffs paid artificially inflated prices for Packaged 9 Seafood purchased from the Defendants.

10 B. Defendants' Anticompetitive Conspiracy

11 41. Beginning at least as early as January 2000 and continuing to the present,
12 Defendants Tri-Union, Bumble Bee, and StarKist participated together in anticompetitive
13 communications, including telephone calls (sometimes multiple times a day) and frequent face-
14 to-face meetings at pre-arranged locations, including hotels and restaurants. During these 15 meetings and telephone calls, Defendants shared sensitive business information, and entered into 16 agreements to fix, raise, stabilize, and maintain prices of Packaged Seafood sold to customers in 17 the United States.

18 42. Senior executives of the three companies met at least twice a year.

19 43. At other times, top executives regularly discussed prices and shared sensitive 20 customer information.

21 44. Throughout the Relevant Period, Defendants communicated regularly by telephone
22 to discuss prices and sensitive customer information. For example, during at least one telephone 23 conversation between Bumble Bee and Starkist executives, Starkist informed Bumble Bee that 24 StarKist and Tri-Union were in agreement to raise prices.

25 45. As part of the conspiracy, Defendants discussed pricing, and agreed to coordinate 26 the timing and amount of price increases for Packaged Seafood sold to customers in the United 27 States. Defendants also agreed to restrict capacity and allocate customers.

28

1 46. Defendants agreed to exchange, and did exchange, information during their 2 telephone conversations and meetings for the purpose of monitoring and enforcing adherence to 3 their agreements.

4 47. Defendants had ample opportunities for collusion. Defendants routinely attended
5 trade shows and conferences during which they discussed Packaged Seafood pricing and other
6 aspects of their conspiracy. Defendants also collaborated on many projects during the Relevant
7 Period, including their joint “Tuna the Wonderfish” advertising campaign and the International 8 Seafood Sustainability Foundation.

9 48. The “Tuna the Wonderfish” advertising campaign, which ran from early 2011
10 through early 2012, was designed to stem the tide of declining sales of Packaged Seafood in the 11 United States. The “Tuna the Wonderfish” campaign gave Defendants ample opportunity to 12 conspire to raise and fix Packaged Seafood prices. Although the campaign was unsuccessful in 13 boosting consumption, Defendants nonetheless jointly implemented a price increase in 2012 in 14 the face of falling demand.

15 49. Defendants Bumble Bee and Tri-Union also co-operate on seafood processing and 16 packaging. Bumble Bee co-packs for the West Coast for Tri-Union in Bumble Bee’s Santa Fe
17 Springs, California plant, while Tri-Union returns the favor for the East Coast at its Lyons, 18 Georgia plant.

19 THE CHARACTERISTICS OF THE UNITED STATES
20 PACKAGED SEAFOOD MARKET ARE CONDUCTIVE TO COLLUSION

21 50. The structure and characteristics of the Packaged Seafood market in the United 22 States are conducive to a price-fixing agreement.

23 51. Packaged Seafood is a commodity product that is sold directly to retail chains and 24 through grocery wholesalers and distributors, such as Plaintiffs. Packaged Seafood varieties have 25 similar shelf life, contain similar amounts of seafood, and are marketed in cans, pouches, and 26 cups. Therefore, purchasers of Packaged Seafood are more likely to be influenced by price when 27 making a purchasing decision.

28

1 52. There are substantial barriers that preclude, or reduce, entry into the Packaged
2 Seafood market, including high start-up costs, manufacturing expertise, access to raw materials,
3 and access to distribution channels. Therefore, Defendants could collectively raise prices without 4 fear of being undercut by new entrants.

5 53. Purchasers routinely source their Packaged Seafood from one of the three 6 Defendants. As a result, Defendants dominate the United States Packaged Seafood market.

7 54. Defendants possessed significant market power to raise prices for Packaged
8 Seafood above competitive levels in the United States.

9 55. There are no economically reasonable substitutes for Packaged Seafood.
10 Alternative seafood, such as frozen seafood or fresh seafood, do not have commensurate shelf
11 lives and require preparation, such as cooking, before they can be consumed.

12 THE DOJ INVESTIGATION

13 56. The San Francisco office of the antitrust division of the United States Department 14 of Justice (“DOJ”) is conducting an investigation into anticompetitive practices in the United 15 States Packaged Seafood industry. The DOJ has convened a grand jury. Two of the three largest 16 United States Packaged Seafood manufacturers, Tri-Union and Bumble Bee, have publicly 17 confirmed receipt of grand jury subpoenas.

18 57. On July 23, 2015, Thai Union confirmed that its subsidiary, “Tri-Union Seafoods
19 LLC, operating in the United States under the brand Chicken of the Sea ha[d] received a 20 subpoena requiring the production of relevant information to the DOJ,” and that “Chicken of the 21 Sea is cooperating fully with the investigation.”

22 58. As an indication of the seriousness of the DOJ’s investigation, Thai Union, on 23 July 17, 2015, announced that it had suspended a planned public offering. The company stated 24 that it wanted additional clarity on this investigation before proceeding with the public offering.
25 Thai Union has notified the Securities and Exchange Commission of the suspension.

26 59. On July 23, 2015, Bumble Bee acknowledged receipt of a grand jury subpoena,
27 stating, “The Company did receive a grand jury subpoena relating to a US Department of Justice 28

1 investigation into potential antitrust violations in the packaged seafood industry. The Company is 2 cooperating fully with the investigation.”

3 60. StarKist has not announced whether it received a grand jury subpoena. Upon
4 information and belief, StarKist applied for admittance into the DOJ’s corporate leniency
5 program to report Defendants’ price-fixing activity and other anticompetitive conduct violative of 6 the Sherman Act § 1 in the United States Packaged Seafood market.

7 61. Upon information and belief, StarKist has been accepted into the DOJ corporate 8 leniency program.

9 PLAINTIFFS SUFFERED ANTITRUST INJURY

10 62. Defendants’ conspiracy had the following effects, among others:

11 a. Price competition has been restrained or eliminated with respect to 12 Packaged Seafood; and

13 b. The prices of Packaged Seafood have been fixed, raised, maintained, or 14 stabilized at artificially inflated levels.

15 63. During the Relevant Period, Defendants charged supra-competitive prices for 16 Packaged Seafood sold to Plaintiffs. By reason of Defendants’ alleged violations of the antitrust 17 laws, Plaintiffs have sustained injury to their businesses or property, having paid higher prices for 18 Packaged Seafood than they would have paid absent Defendants’ alleged illegal contract, 19 combination, or conspiracy, and, as a result, have suffered damages in an amount to be 20 determined. This is an antitrust injury of the type the antitrust laws were meant to punish and 21 prevent.

22 FRAUDULENT CONCEALMENT AND
23 TOLLING OF THE STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS

24 64. Throughout the Relevant Period, Defendants affirmatively and fraudulently
25 concealed their unlawful conduct from discovery by Plaintiffs.

26 65. Plaintiffs did not discover, and could not have discovered through the exercise of 27 reasonable diligence, which they, in fact, exercised, the existence of the conspiracy and 28 Defendants’ and their co-conspirators’ involvement in the conspiracy until July 23, 2015, when

1 the DOJ's investigations first became public.

2 66. Because the conspiracy was actively concealed until July 23, 2015, Plaintiffs were 3 unaware of Defendants' and their co-conspirators' unlawful conduct, and did not know that they
4 were paying artificially high prices for Packaged Seafood.

5 67. The affirmative acts of Defendants and their co-conspirators, including acts in 6 furtherance of the conspiracy, were wrongfully concealed and carried out in a manner that 7 precluded detection.

8 68. Defendants and their co-conspirators agreed among themselves not to discuss 9 publicly, or otherwise reveal, the nature and substance of the acts and communications in 10 furtherance of their illegal conspiracy.

11 69. Defendants and their co-conspirators met and communicated secretly concerning 12 the pricing and marketing of Packaged Seafood as to avoid detection.

13 70. Plaintiffs could not have discovered the alleged conspiracy at an earlier date by the 14 exercise of reasonable diligence because of the deceptive practices and secrecy techniques
15 employed by Defendants and their co-conspirators to avoid detection of, and fraudulently
16 conceal, their contract, conspiracy, or combination. Defendants' conspiracy was fraudulently 17 concealed by various means and methods, including, but not limited to, secret meetings, 18 misrepresentations to customers, and surreptitious communications among Defendants and their 19 co-conspirators via telephone or in in-person meetings in order to prevent the existence of written 20 records.

21 71. Because the alleged conspiracy was affirmatively concealed by Defendants and 22 their co-conspirators until July 23, 2015, Plaintiffs had no knowledge of the alleged conspiracy or 23 any facts or information that would have caused a reasonably diligent person to investigate 24 whether a conspiracy existed.

25 72. None of the facts or information available to Plaintiffs prior to July 23, 2015, if 26 investigated with reasonable diligence, could or would have led to the discovery of the conspiracy
27 prior to July 23, 2015.

28

1 73. As a result of Defendants' and their co-conspirators' fraudulent concealment of the 2 conspiracy, the running of any statute of limitations has been tolled with respect to Plaintiffs'
3 claims of anticompetitive conduct alleged in this Complaint.

4 COUNT I

5 VIOLATION OF THE SHERMAN ACT § 1

6 74. Defendants and their co-conspirators entered into, and engaged in, a contract, 7 combination, or conspiracy in unreasonable restraint of trade in violation of Section 1 of the 8 Sherman Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1.

9 75. Defendants' anticompetitive acts were intentionally directed at the United States
10 Packaged Seafood market, and had a substantial and foreseeable effect on interstate commerce by 11 raising and fixing Packaged Seafood prices throughout the United States.

12 76. The contract, combination, or conspiracy had the following direct, substantial, and 13 reasonably foreseeable effects upon commerce in the United States and upon import commerce:

14 a. Prices charged to, and paid by, Plaintiffs for Packaged Seafood were 15 artificially raised, fixed, maintained, or stabilized at supra-competitive levels;

16 b. Plaintiffs have been deprived of the benefits of free, open, and unrestricted 17 competition in the United States Packaged Seafood market; and 18 c. Competition in establishing the prices paid for Packaged Seafood has been 19 unlawfully restrained, suppressed, or eliminated.

20 77. Defendants' and their co-conspirators' anticompetitive activities have directly and 21 proximately caused injury to Plaintiffs in the United States.

22 78. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiffs paid
23 artificially inflated prices for Packaged Seafood.

24 79. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiffs have 25 been damaged in its business or property by paying prices for Packaged Seafood that were higher 26 than they would have been but for Defendants' unlawful conduct, which has resulted in an 27 amount of ascertainable damages to be established at trial.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray that the Court:

A. Adjudge and decree that Defendants’ unlawful contract, combination, or conspiracy constitutes a per se violation of Section 1 of the Sherman Act;

B. Adjudge and decree that each Defendant, and its successors, assigns, parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, and transferees, and their respective officers, directors, agents, and employees, and all other persons acting or claiming to act on behalf of any of them or in concert with them, be permanently enjoined and restrained from in any manner, directly or indirectly, continuing, maintaining, or renewing the combination, conspiracy, agreement, understanding, or concert of action, or adopting any practice, plan, program, or design having a similar purpose or effect in restraining competition in the United States Packaged Seafood market;

C. Enter judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, in favor of Plaintiffs for treble damages determined to have been sustained by Plaintiffs by virtue of Defendants’ and their co-conspirators’ violations of the Sherman Act;

D. Award Plaintiffs their attorneys’ fees, litigation expenses, and court costs, as well as pre-judgment and post-judgment interest as permitted by United States law; and

E. Grant Plaintiffs such other and further relief as the case may require, or as the Court deems just and proper under the circumstances.

JURY DEMAND

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 38(b), Plaintiffs demand a trial by jury.
